Lesson: Why Social Media?

Social media has changed the way we communicate and the way we do business. Word of mouth marketing is being replaced by tweeting recommendations to friends, and more and more customers are researching products online before purchasing. This introductory lesson introduces the relevance of social media in marketing and gives a high level overview of the top social networks.

Lesson Objectives:

• Understand how social media has created a shift in marketing
• Understand the current state of social media marketing
• Understand high level applications of the top 10 social networks: Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Google+, Youtube, Foursquare, Tumblr, Instagram, Pinterest, and Flickr

Lesson: The Digital Marketing Landscape

Before you start marketing using social media, it's important to understand how social media fits in with other digital tools and marketing approaches. This lesson will provide the relevance for social media in our digital age.

Lesson Objectives:
• Understand the technology adoption cycle
• Recognize the zero moment of truth
• Understand the relationships between different digital entities

Do
• Find a client for your class project

Project Assignment:
Introduce the class project and have students research and select a client to work with.

Class Project:
Students will work for a client of their choosing, such as a non-profit organization, a new startup, small business, etc, for the duration of the semester. Students will need to have access to any existing social media channels and the permission to create new ones. Principles learned in class will be applied to their client as they use social media to grow their business and learn hands-on social media best practices. Students will also create a blog for the client using the Tumblr platform, and use social media to drive traffic to the site. HootSuite will be used as an integrated marketing tool throughout the course and students will attain their HootSuite Certification.
Students will provide a report on their successes and challenges, what strategies worked and didn’t work, what social networks and applications they found the most effective, and their overall experience.

Grading will be determined by the quality of content created, social media activity, and effort.

Lesson: Social Networks, Part 1

Students will learn the fundamentals of creating and managing social presences on Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, and Google+ and how marketers are using these networks. The material provided in this lesson is intended to give students the tactical knowledge of how to use these social networks, it is recommended that class time be used to cover the ideas, theory, or application of these networks.

Lesson Objectives:

- Create and maintain a business presence on Facebook, Twitter, and Google+
- Create and publish content to a Tumblr blog
- Engage with other customers social media
- Use social media to follow their industry and community

Facebook

Professor may choose to combine this with other sections of the lesson or have Facebook as a standalone lecture.

Learning Objectives:

- Setting Up Your Facebook Page

Do

- Create a Tumblr blog for your client. You can customize your blog from a variety of free themes available from Tumblr.
- Once you have created your blog, tweet the URL with the class hashtag. Using the hashtag, find your classmates’ blogs and follow them.
- Find and follow other Tumblr accounts relevant to your industry, be it personalities, publications, organizations, governments, etc.
- Explore Tumblr’s featured tags, and research which tags are most popular for your business
- Note: you can only follow blogs from a primary Tumblr account. If you have an existing Tumblr account you can easily create a secondary blog, but you will only be able to follow, like, and reply to posts using your primary Tumblr account (which would be your personal). Be sure to create a new Tumblr account with an email address you can share with your client.
Project Assignment:

Now that you have a working knowledge of how to create and maintain a social media presence on Facebook, Twitter, Google+, and Tumblr, it’s time to get started with your class project. Create a social media plan to include your final report. Your plan should include how you plan to use each social network, what you will be focused on promoting, and what business goals you hope to achieve using social media.

You can use Tumblr as a static blog, or you can use it to post a mix of short and long form content (as seen in the readings). Write your first blog post on a subject that is of interest to your audience, publish it to Tumblr using appropriate post tags, and promote it on Facebook, Twitter, and Google+ using best practices gleaned from reviewing assigned material.

Lesson: Personal Branding & Social Media Etiquette

Understanding how to communicate with social media is key to your success in today’s digital landscape. In this lesson, you'll learn the guidelines and best practices around social media etiquette as well as the nuances of specific social networks to help you communicate effectively online.

It’s important for marketers to have a consistent personal brand and professional online presence to help you find clients, present yourself as knowledgeable, and leverage your personal networks to help you achieve your business’ goals.

Lesson Objectives:

• Understand the Fundamental Dos & Don’ts of Social Media
• Understand Why Social Media Etiquette is Important
• How To Build A Network of Connections That Reflects You
• How To Disclose Bias and Represent Yourself Accurately
• Understand the nuanced etiquette for Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn
• Create a consistent personal brand online

- Review @Sree’s Effective Twitter Bios Twitter list. Is yours working for you?
- Get started with your HootSuite dashboard by adding social networks and following the steps outlined in your course workbook

Project Assignment:

Now that you understand why personal branding and social media etiquette is important, it's time to take an audit of your existing client pages: is there a consistent branding scheme (color/cover photo/avatar)? Based on what you’ve learned, update your pages on Twitter, Facebook, Google+, and Tumblr.

Create a personal website of all your social media profiles to show off your personal brand using Flavors.me or About.me and tweet your URL using the class hashtag. You should update this site as the class progresses and you add more social profiles.

Lesson: Social Media Tools & Applications

As you’ve learned, social media can be a powerful tool for marketing. However, it can be difficult to manage multiple social profiles, networks, and accounts as new ones spring forward all the time. Organizing your social media and conversations is important so you can then add opinion and provide engaging content in the form of a story.

Lesson Objectives:

- How to Track the Success of a Story From Tweet to Pageview
- How to Measure Site Traffic Using Google Analytics
- Understand Why Social Media Management Tools Are Important
- Understand the Mobile App Landscape

• Complete the appropriate sections in your coursebook

Project Assignment:
Create a Google Analytics account and start tracking your Tumblr blog and HootSuite messages! Apply the best practices you learned from the Google Analytics webinar and track how much traffic each of your social media posts is generating. Create a marketing content strategy for your final report. Based on your analytics in the coming weeks, make adjustments to your social media messages and experiment with different ways of driving traffic, and include these strategies your final report.

If you have a smartphone, research apps that will be helpful to your marketing, download them, and start experimenting with using them for your project. Some inspiration: Dropbox to quickly share files, IFTTT to set up news alerts, Vine for on-location video, etc. If you choose, you can post your experiences or the media you created to your blog.

Lesson: Social Influence & Advertising

Content marketing may be the cornerstone to your social media strategy, but social ads are also an effective way to increase awareness of your brand or profiles. This lesson will cover different strategies and techniques used when building out social ads.

Lesson Objectives:
• Understand Twitter ads
• Understand Facebook ads

Do

• Complete your coursebook & pass the HootSuite Certification exam

Project Assignment:
Create an advertising strategy for your final report. Research what advertising looks like on different social networks (Foursquare, Youtube, etc) and summarize what you think the best approach would be for your client. You do not have to actually create and pay for the ads, but you should be familiar with how you would do so if you were given a budget.

Lesson: Social Networks, Part 2

Students will learn the fundamentals of creating and managing social presences on LinkedIn, Instagram, and Youtube, and how marketers are using these networks. The material provided in this lesson is intended to give students the tactical knowledge of how to use these social networks, it is recommended that class time be used to cover the ideas, theory, or application of these networks.

Lesson Objectives:
• Create and maintain a professional presence on LinkedIn
• Understand how to incorporate multimedia into content marketing
• Understand how YouTube and Instagram can be used in marketing

• Take the SCMD 110 Exam
• Create/update your LinkedIn profile based on the best practices you learned, link it to your About.me or Flavors.me profile, and add it to your HootSuite dashboard
• If applicable, add your existing Instagram or Youtube accounts to HootSuite via their App Directory

Project Assignment:

Review your existing social media plan: should you add any other social networks to your strategy? Does Instagram, Vine, or Youtube make sense for your client? Based on what you’ve learned, include your conclusions in your report.

Write a blog post for your client and incorporate multimedia from Youtube, Instagram, and Vine. Search for your community’s influencers and publications on Instagram or Youtube and follow them (tip: you can set up streams in HootSuite to monitor tags and feeds alongside your other social media accounts).

Now that you are HootSuite Certified, it’s time to create a content calendar for the remainder of the class. Map out what content you will be creating, for what social network, and schedule applicable messages. Include a copy of your calendar in your final report, along with your learnings and any adjustments you had to make.

Lesson: Engaging on Social Media

Using social media to drive traffic to your blog, find customers, and follow news is important to your success as a marketer. But social media also provides an opportunity to engage with the community involved in your industry, which can be a great way to build relationships with key influencers and make you a trusted part of the community.

Lesson objectives:

• How to engage with your community over Facebook
• Understand social media best practices for engaging with your Twitter followers
• Understand why it’s important for news organizations to build community

• Start applying the best practices you learned to your social media activity this week. Did you notice an increase in comments, retweets, or mentions?

Project Assignment:
Apply these best practices when promoting a blog post this week. Try to choose a topic that would best engage your community with the goal of creating conversation and having readers engage with your content through comments and shares. Include the result and reaction in your final project report.

Lesson: Social Media Analytics & Proving ROI

Einstein famously said “not everything that counts can be counted, and not everything that can be counted counts.” Social media is no different, and with a lot of data to sort through, how do you know what you should be paying attention to and what you can discard? This lesson is an introduction to social media analytics to help you find out what’s important to track in your marketing career.

Lesson Objectives:
• Understand basic analytics modules
• Create a social media analytics report using HootSuite
• Compare social media analytics with site traffic using Google Analytics

Do

• Create a custom report for your blog and social media accounts using HootSuite’s analytics modules.

Project Assignment:
Now that you’ve come full circle with your social media education, it’s time to apply all of your knowledge and track your progress. Based on your experiences and what you learned in this class, create a final report on your successes and challenges, what strategies worked and didn’t work, what social networks and applications you found the most effective, and your overall experience.

Be sure to include both hard analytics like site traffic and follower growth along with soft metrics like quality of comments, community engagement, and influence.

Lesson: Social Media Policies

You’ve learned how to conduct yourself professionally online, but now you have to learn how to follow a social media policy put out by an organization. Depending on your future workplace, you will have to tailor your activity to fit their social media guidelines. This lesson explores how various organizations approach social media policies.

Lesson Objectives:
• Understand the history of social media policies
• Understand why social media policies are important
• How to follow a social media policy responsibly

Project Assignment

For the final addition to your report, use your knowledge of social media to create a brief social media policy for your client that future employees may abide by. What will your internal approach to social media be? Be sure to consult with your client on their philosophy based on what you have learned.
